NOTIONAL OR NATIONAL?

In his lifetime, it was his prerogative to decide who should use his photograph, Pawar asserted. He had objected to his photo being kept at the newly opened NCP office.

The Ajit Pawar faction moved into the new office on Tuesday after being locked out initially as keys to the bungalow were found to be missing.

The unequivocal message from the uncle came even as Cabinet 'berth pangs' recoiled on the Maha Yuti with Ajit Pawar throwing a tantrum over the revenue portfolio.

Both factions are jostling to garner the support of party leaders and workers. Jayant Patil also said that after the meeting on Wednesday, Sharad Pawar will address the working committee meeting at Delhi and then start touring Maharashtra.

"He shall start from Nashik and tour Beed, Ahmednagar, Solapur and a few more districts. He has resolved that he will carry on with the tour, come what may," Patil added.

On his flock of MLAs, Patil said that of the 53, he had expelled 9 and hence all the remaining (44) are with the NCP.

Praful Patel had claimed on Monday that last year 51 party MLAs had written to Sharad Pawar urging him to support the BJP to topple the Thackeray government, indicating that the same number of MLAs are supporting Ajit Pawar. A modest Ajit, however, on Tuesday, claimed he enjoyed the support of 40 MLAs.

'BERTH' PANGS

It is understood that Chief Minister Shinde had discussions with both Fadnis and Pawar and the matter will be resolved in the days to come.

However, there is no denying the heartburn over portfolio allocation among some of the Shiv Sena MLAs who had revolted against the then Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray. When asked, Bharat Gogawale, the MLA from Mahad in Raigad, said, "Now that a new party has joined the dispensation, it is obvious that we will get a lesser share. We are ready for that looking at the big picture."

When Education minister Deepak Kesarkar was asked about the outcry during the Thackeray regime against the then finance minister, Ajit Pawar, over thin allocations to Shiv Sena MLAs, he said the lament was addressed to Thackeray more than Pawar.

"Every leader should give priority to his party men. So, whatever Ajit Dada was doing back then is understandable. But, we were frustrated that our own leader was unwilling to anything about it. Thackeray never asked Pawar to enhance the allocations or be more equitable in the matter," Kesarkar said, adding that any such situation is unlikely now since the leaders are proactive and caring.

However, he too voiced complete ignorance about who is likely to get which portfolio.

The state cabinet can accommodate up to 43 members. Currently, there are 29 ministers, 10 from the BJP, 10 from the Shiv Sena and 9 from the NCP. The NCP has more experienced ministers and hence the party is likely to get 4-5 cabinet and other junior berths.

Whether the leaders fill up all the 14 vacancies or keep some intact, too, would be clear in a week's time, sources said.

Ten killed as trailer...

Last Saturday, 25 people were charred to death when the bus in which they were travelling caught fire on the Samruddhi Marg in Buldhana.

According to police, a 14-wheeler trailer coming from Indore reached Palasner village in Shirpur taluka on Tuesday, when its brakes failed, resulting in a collision with several vehicles and subsequent crashing into a dhaba.

The long rig first tossed into the air a person standing by a truck, then went on to hit a car, in which a woman and her three children were seated. They were crushed to death while the father of the children is battling for life in a nearby hospital.

After hitting the car and bus stand, the vehicle went further towards the village, hitting a bike and injuring both the bike riders. Going further, it tossed a few bikes parked outside Parmar Dhaba and then rammied into the eatery. Since it was morning, there were many customers in the hotel, who were also injured.

A police officer said the container was barreling down so rapidly that its front end crashed through the dhaba while its rear overturned. "There is a turn on the road where the accident happened, so we feel that the container driver was driving at a high speed which he could not control," said the officer.

Dhule Police said the container had a cargo of stones and the driver was coming at a high speed. Police are working with experts to ascertain whether the reason for the accident was brake failure or speeding.

Disqualification 'ghost'

As per the plea, the constitutional requirement of fairness enjoins upon the Speaker the obligation to decide on the question of disqualification in an expeditious manner.

"Any unreasonable delay on the part of the Speaker in deciding the petitions for disqualification contributes to and perpetuates the constitutional sin of deflection committed by the delinquent members...", the plea has said.

Prabhu has further contended that the Speaker's inaction in deciding the disqualification proceedings "is an act of grave constitutional impropriety as his inaction is allowing MLAs who are liable to be disqualified to continue in the assembly and to hold responsible positions in the government of Maharashtra including that of the Chief Minister."

On May 11, a 5-judge constitution bench held that it cannot disqualify the Shinde-led government and reinstate Uddhav Thackeray as the CM since the latter had chosen to resign instead of facing a test of strength in the Assembly.

K-menace again...

A poster has been also circulated on social media with pictures of both diplomats and the text reading "Faces of Shaheed Nijjar's killers in Australia," Australia Today reported.

Another poster being shared on social media says that a "Khalistan Freedom Rally" will be organised on July 8 that will start in Berkeley, California, and end at the Indian embassy in San Francisco.

This is the second time within months that the Indian Consulate in San Francisco came under attack from Khalistani supporters.

External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar on Monday said India has asked its partner countries such as Canada, the UK and the US not to give space to "extremist Khalistani ideology" as it is "not good" for relations.

Doctor attacked by...

The accused were identified as Shahim Ahmad, 50, Ifjal Ahmad, 55, and Gausia Shajin.

According to the complainant, the relatives of the patient did not pay hospital charges, picking up a quarrel with the staff over the issue. For the last few days, Sajida's prescription order has been handed over to her relatives, with instructions to buy the medicines and give them to the hospital administration, but the relatives were reportedly arguing and had not done as required.

According to the complainant, considering the importance of the patient's treatment at such a time, all the necessary medication and ventilation facilities were being continued by the hospital administration. Earlier too, the hospital administration had filed a police complaint against the patient's relatives.

Sajida was admitted to the Kokilaben Dhirubhai Ambani Hospital because she was losing consciousness and was suffering from neurological problems, on January 14. She was moved from the general ward to the ICU on June 23, for the treatment of a chest infection and was to be transferred back to the general ward, as is the practice once a patient's infection has subsided.

Taliban bans beauty salons

The letter, which was released just days after Akhundzada claimed that his government has taken steps for the betterment of women's lives in Afghanistan, doesn't give reasons for the ban.

The latest ban "will affect thousands of makeup artists and close hundreds of beauty shops nationwide", said Jamila Afghan, an Afghan women's rights activist who fled the country and now lives in Turkey, according to Bloomberg. "The Taliban don't consider women as human beings but as a commodity to own and oppress," she reportedly said.

Despite initial promises of a more moderate rule than during their previous stint in power in the 1990s, the Taliban have imposed harsh measures since seizing Afghanistan in August 2021 as US and NATO forces were pulling out.

They have barred women from public spaces, such as parks and gyms, and cracked down on media freedom. The measures have triggered a fierce international uproar, increasing the country's isolation at a time when its economy has collapsed and have worsened a humanitarian crisis.

If ED is not checked...

Salve, along with Senior Advocate Mukul Rohatgi, was representing the Bansals before the apex court.

"These are drastic powers given to the ED. If Lordships do not rein them in, no one is safe in this country. See how the arrest was done. They were cooperating, Arrest was in violation of my rights... These powers need to be reined in. Fourteen days they have been inside," Salve told a bench of Justices AS Bopanna and MM Sundresh, according to Bar and Bench.

There was not even a whisper of any violation of anticipatory bail conditions to prompt the ED to act in such a manner, the senior advocate said.

Justice Sundresh, in a lighter vein, remarked, "You are right. It is a cat-and-mouse game. They are using the laws."

The Bansal brothers were arrested by the ED on June 14. Thereafter, a special court in Haryana's Panchkula remanded them to five days of custody. The brothers have challenged this, contending that such custody amounts to illegal detention and was an effort to avoid the High Court's orders granting them protection from coercive action in another money laundering case.

Supreme Court judge, Justice KV Viswanathan had recused from hearing the matter last month.

Additional Solicitor General SV Raju, appearing for the ED, informed the bench that it would challenge the order passed in another case granting the brothers interim protection from arrest, once it comes up before the Delhi High Court on Wednesday.

Man urinates on tribal

Pawan Khara, chairman of the media and publicity department of the Congress, shared the video clip along with a picture of a banner on which the accused was described as "Vidhayak Pratidhdi Sidhi". "In the 21st century, such inhuman atrocities are happening with the tribals of our country and we are dreaming of becoming Vishwaguru! What could be more embarrassing for all of us than this?" he tweeted.

Tina Ambani grilled by ED

The taxmen had charged Anil Ambani with 'wilful evasion', stating that the industrialist had 'intentionally' not disclosed his foreign bank account details to them.

An interim stay was granted by the Bombay high court on the I-T show-cause notice and demand of penalty.

The 64-year-old business tycoon had earlier appeared before the ED in a 2020 money laundering probe linked to the Yes Bank loan kickbacks case, in which the bank's co-founder, Rana Kapoor, was arrested.

Why are netas making a beeline for Bilaspur?

AVDHESH MALLICK / Bilaspur

After BJP national president's JP Nadda's visit in Bilaspur on Friday, AAP's boss Arvind Kejriwal also addressed a political rally in the district. Few days ago, Congress organized a state level political meeting in Bilaspur. As the information is spreading in coming days some more national level leaders will visit Bilaspur.

From the political point of view, the Bilaspur division has its own importance especially in the formation of a government in Chhattisgarh.

Bilaspur Division is the largest division in the state which holds 24 Assembly seats.

At present, out of 24 seats, Congress has won 13 seats, BJP holds 7 seats, 2 seats are with BSP, meanwhile 1 seat is with Chhattisgarh Janata Congress (JCCJ).

Secondly, out of 11 Lok Sabha seats, 4 seats are in Bilaspur Division. BJP holds three LS seats, meanwhile, 1 seat is with Congress party. Secondly, BJP's state president Arun Sao is MP from Bilaspur. Narayan Chandel is Leader of Opposition in Chhattisgarh Assembly from Janjgir-champa seat.

Both the powerful local leaders were given additional responsibility to increase the number of seats in Bilaspur Division.

Earlier, Bilaspur division was considered as the stronghold of Congress. There was an historic reason behind this. At the time of undivided Madhya Pradesh, despite public sentiments being anti-Indira, Congress successfully won 13 out of 19 assembly seats in the district in assembly polls 1977-78.

At the time of division of the district it used to hold 10 seats. In 1998, the first time here BJP had won 7 seats. However, after this the Bahujan Samaj Party worked hard and started snatching the seats held by the Congress.

Then later Congress destroyed its own citadel due to internal factionalism.

Contractual workers to get wages at par with regular employees: CM

Government abolishes annual renewal of contracts system

FPJ NEWS SERVICE / Bhopal

Doing away with the annual contract renewal system, Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan on Tuesday announced that all contractual government staffers will now be entitled to get salary and other benefits at par with the permanent employees. The decision will benefit around 2.5 lakh contractual workers in Madhya Pradesh.

"The contractual employees will now be given 100% salaries like regular employees. They will also be given the benefit of the New Pension Scheme (NPS). All kinds of leaves including 180 days maternity leave will be provided to the contractual staffers," said the chief minister addressing Samvida Karamchari Sammelan at Motilal Nehru Stadium here.

"Now there is no need for contractual workers to move from pillar to post to get their annual contract renewed. The annual contract renewal system has made the life of contractual employees miserable even after their long service years," said the chief minister. He, however, cautioned against taking undue advantage and warned of action as per the law.

THE BENEFITS

Russian society uniting against attempted armed rebellion: Putin

PTI / New Delhi

It was the first appearance for President Vladimir V. Putin of Russia at an international forum since he faced a mercenary uprising nearly two weeks ago.

Putin used the opportunity to claim that the uprising had no popular support and that he has a firm grip on power. He also sought to cast the summit as a sign of international support for his invasion of Ukraine.

The remarks came even as several drones were intercepted in the Moscow region early Tuesday, including near an airport. Russian officials blamed Ukraine for the latest aerial incursion targeting the political and economic heart of Russia. Putin thanked PM Modi for organising the summit.

Safeguard regional peace: Xi Jinping

Chinese President Xi Jinping called on the SCO member countries to safeguard regional peace and ensure common security besides focussing on pragmatic cooperation to speed up economic recovery.

He also underscored efforts to uphold multilateralism

MAJOR MAKEOVER FOR BJP

OUR BUREAU / New Delhi

The BJP leadership is ramping up preparations for the Assembly polls in five states this year by first changing the state presidents and organising general secretaries before the union cabinet and national level organisational changes.

The BJP named Union minister G Kishan Reddy, Sunil Jakhar and Babulal Marandi its president in Telangana, Punjab and Jharkhand respectively, effecting key organisational changes in the run-up to the Lok Sabha polls and fuelling the speculation about a reshuffle in the Union cabinet.

Reddy has been appointed president of the state unit in Telangana replacing Bandi Sanjay while Eteela Rajender has been given charge of the election management committee.

A senior leader said Reddy's appointment will "keep the flock together" as he is seen as a "friend to all."

"There were many issues that had cropped up in the party after Bandi's elevation and with Reddy's appointment, we expect those to be resolved," the leader said.

In Punjab, Ashwani Sharma has been replaced by Sunil Jakhar, who is a former Congressman and joined the BJP in March 2022, following a public showdown after being overlooked for the position of PCC chief.
